

LOVELY BRIDE . . . Miss Pat Suttle who was united in marriage with Richard Cowlishaw in simple ceremony performed in the Baptist parsonage. They will live here at 723-A Sartori ave.

In simple rites performed Nov. 2 in the Baptist parsonage, Miss Pat Suttle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Suttle, of 723 1/2 Sartori ave., became the bride of Richard Cowlishaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brummitt, of 1532 W. 203rd st.

Lovely in a pastel blue afternoon dress with contrasting accessories and carrying a bouquet of red roses, the bride was attended by Mrs. Bonnie Bland who wore light green and a corsage of yellow roses. Robert Makley, of Hollywood, was his nephew's attendant. Also attending the ceremony was Carl Suttle, of this city.

Mrs. Cowlishaw attended Torrance high school and her husband, a chemist at Goodyear Rubber Company, is a veteran of 3 1/2 years duty in the Southwest Pacific.

A small reception followed at the couple's new home, 723-A Sartori ave.

NEWS OF WOMEN OF THE MOOSE

Torrance Chapter No. 44, Women of the Moose, will hold a sale of baked goods and cooked foods Saturday, Nov. 23 at the entrance of Levy's department store.

The last regular meeting, Wednesday evening, was usually successful, it is reported. There will be no meeting on Wednesday evening, Nov. 27, the eve of the Thanksgiving holiday.

Mrs. Elsie Smith reports that in the past two months she has been able to secure two gift dogs for the blind.

Plans for a gala Christmas party are being outlined by the chapter.

Elementary PTA Reports Unusually Well Attended Meet

The regular monthly meeting of Torrance Elementary PTA was held Thursday afternoon in the school auditorium. Mrs. Don Wolf presided.

Mrs. L. G. Powell, membership chairman, reported the membership drive was very successful, with a total of 529 members, including 113 fathers. Although the contest is over, PTA membership is never closed, she stated, and invited all parents to join. Mr. Blue, fourth grade class, won the membership prize for the upper grades and Mrs. Whitney's first graders won in the lower grades.

Mrs. Elmer Moon reported on the recent Lomita San Pedro Council meeting. "Understanding the Rights of Youth" was the theme of the meeting, and honored guests were Scouts and Scout leaders. Mrs. E. G. Spratt introduced the Scout leaders present and Shirley Northway and Darlene Faulkner of Troop No. 510 gave a very interesting talk, "What my Girl Scout Troop Means to Me." Brownie Troop No. 576, directed by Mrs. Chambers, sang "Autumn."

Guest speaker of the day was Mr. Delgado, of the Los Angeles Council of Boy Scouts, whose topic was "Scout Trails to Citizenship," told of how scouting today prepares our youth to take their places as active citizens in the world of tomorrow. Delgado made an appeal for more parents to train for Scout leadership. The film "Scout Trail to Citizenship" was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Don Wolf also told of the need for trained adult leaders in the Scout program and of the long list of girls who are unable to become Scouts because leaders are not now available.

Edward Bourne, Bobby Lenton, Patrick Jelmsa and Denis Coll of Cub Pack No. 241, led the flag ceremony. Ann Olson, of Troop 416, and Mickey Vandeventer, of Troop 510, students of Kathryn Buffington, played duo-piano numbers, "The Elf and the Fairy," "The Guitar," "Moon Mist" and "The Gypsies are Coming." Tea was served by third and fourth grade mothers, Mrs. Charles Emery and Mrs. J. E. Popovich, hospitality chairmen.

Candlelight Service Marks Investiture Of Girl Scout Troop 184

Members of Girl Scout Troop 184, sponsored by First Christian church, held an investiture service in the church parlors last Friday evening, when the following girls started on the road of scouting: Charlotte Anderson, Joanne Boss, Patricia Bowman, Thelma Brooks, Mary Hutchinson, Janet Robison, Betty Rusk, Marilyn Saine, Barbara Shanahan, Barbara Smith and Glenda Wells. Small candles were lighted from the three large ones, and the "Promise" song was sung.

Skits were given by the different groups on Juliette Low, Betsy Ross and Kilroy. Songs were sung and games were played. Later delicious refreshments were served from a prettily decorated table. Mrs. Gladys Pletschke is the leader of this troop, with Mrs. Gertrude Harris and Mrs. Edna Moffatt assisting. On Saturday Nov. 23 the girls will meet at 11 o'clock for a short hike. They will learn to lay a trail and cook over an open fire.

FUN CLUB LEADERS MARK ANNIVERSARY

Mi-N-Yore Fun Club will celebrate the wedding anniversary of the member leaders, Mr. and Mrs. David Attebery, with a pot luck supper at 8:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 23. The party will be held at the Attebery Recreation rooms, 4162-64 Sepulveda boulevard. Plenty of fried chicken will be furnished by Mrs. Attebery. Those attending are asked to provide salad, vegetables, dessert, bread, coffee, cream, sugar, etc.

Dancing will be enjoyed following the supper party. Mrs. H. Mehl, hostess, asks that no gifts be brought.
